Lawson Speaks At Anniversary Services

Thursday evening saw the continuation of its 42 Anniversary celebration when the United Church was again filled to capacity to hear an outstanding inspirational address by Dr. Andrew Lawson of Central United Church, Calgary, on the subject "Building Bridges."

He defined a bridge as a structure made to join together two places otherwise separated and he stressed the fact that there must be such a structure built to join the divided areas of our world today. There must be a bridge to span the gulf between capital and labour; between the comfortable and the poor; between the races of our Dominion; and between the nations of the world.

The world has become such a small place that we have to live together whether we want to or not. The nations have become neighbours and yet they do not know how to be neighborly, the speaker said.

Bridges of Understanding are required, he pointed out, so that we may see problems through the light of the eyes of others, not just our own.

He further stated that it is the hymens of the churches that must build these bridges. Christianity is a layman's movement. If the world is to be saved it is up to the laymen as well as to the ministers. People have long waited for ministers to convert the world and it is time that they awakened to the fact that this can only be done through earnest cooperation between the laymen and the ministers with the help of God, Dr. Lawson declared.

He went on to say that the materials used to build the bridges so far have failed. We thought Science could do it; then we tried Politics; then New Economic systems, all these have failed. Why? Because we haven't tried the obvious—The Principles of Jesus Christ.

We can only have a better society when we have better people said Dr. Lawson. There can be no world peace until the people are at peace with themselves.

The cables for the Bridge must be strong. They must be built of Love — meaning Intelligent Goodwill — if they are to hold.

Dr. Lawson's concluding remarks stressed the urgent need of these bridges and that they can only and will only be built when laymen set to work to strive with all their strength to build them guided by Christian Principles.

The Sunday School perfect attendance prizes were presented by Dr. J. Giffen and Mrs. S. Korek and a most enjoyable musical program was presented by Mr. Audine Chapman and Miss Mary Overend, with Miss Georgia Chapman accompanying at the piano. Mr. Chapman chose as his number an aria from the "Marriage of Figaro", "Fondle Fire", and "The Lord's Prayer". Miss Overend sang "O Lovely Night", "Garden of Your Hymns", "Ave Maria." These two fine young vocalists further charmed their audience with the duet "Come to the Fair."

Mr. McMurray acted as chairman of the evening and Miss Jean Garrett presided at the organ for the opening and closing hymns.

A friendly social coffee hour followed in the Memorial Room.

A large number of friends of John Spiros gathered at the home of Mr. John Akkerman on Sunday evening to throw a farewell party, prior to Mr. Spiros leaving the community. Some 200 guests gathered and the evening to wish John well, and to hope that he would not too long remain away from the community.

Mr. Akkerman, who owns the former CPN buildings, had organized a very interesting evening of games and friendly get-together, accompanied by an almost endless supply of refreshments.

Part way, through the evening, the program stopped for a few moments while the guest of honour was presented with a fine shot-gun with pump action on behalf of the assembled guests by T. S. Hughes who spoke of the interest all held in Mr. Spiros's moving.

Mr. Spiros expressed his very sincere thanks, and told the group how much he had enjoyed his association with them under the last twenty-five years, and how much delighted he hoped he would derive from their fine gift.

Masons Hold Annual Parade to Church

The congregation of Strathmore United Church was augmented by about sixty masons Sunday evening when the Order held its annual Church parade. Members were present from Standard and Strathmore. The members were welcomed to the service by the Pastor, who preached a very telling and thought-provoking sermon, taking as his text, Christ's Words, "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone." Dividing the remarks under the following headings, Justice or Injustice, Compassion and Brotherhood. Rev. Hamilton gave a very forceful picture of the impress of illumination in Christ's answer to the Pharisees in their self-righteous attitude. He emphasized the urgent need for compassion the world over, in the home, the community and the nation, and the goal to be aimed and worked for to bring about Christ's teachings in a brotherhood of all nations. The Scripture lesson was read by the Chaplain, St. H. Crowther.

Staff Changes At Standard

With this issue of The Standard, we will be changing personnel in the composing staff. Miss Dolores Moran, who has operated the linotype for the past eighteen months, has found it necessary to leave owing to increased pressure of work on her father's dairy farm, and this will be her last issue. She will be succeeded by Miss Miriam Allen, who is completing her school examinations prior to starting work.

HIGH RIVER NOVELIST TO WORK FOR MCLEAN'S

HIGH RIVER—W. O. Mitchell, High River novelist and short story writer, has accepted the position of fiction editor with Maclean's Magazine. The 34-year-old author of "Who Has Seen the Wind" recently won the D.D.E. award with "Who Has Seen the Wind," his first novel.

Teachers Hold Party For Brides Elect

Friday evening last the home of Cpl. and Mrs. S. L. Mott was the rendezvous for the Teaching Staff and a few friends when they entertained at a jolly party in honor of Miss Rose Blair and Miss Hazel Lohrmann, whose weddings take place during the summer.

Mrs. Lohrmann and Mr. Bill Chidley were also among the guests present. A very amusing Mock Wedding was staged in which the participants were Mr. W. L. MacKenzie as the groom, Cpl. Mott and the bride, and S. H. Crowther the officiating clergyman. The "Wedding Service" was improvised for the occasion and many amusing side lines were added. Following the service a delicious buffet supper was served. Mrs. Mott being assisted by various members of the staff. Later other games passed the hours quickly by.

An interval followed in which two beautiful twilight floor lamps were brought in by Cpl. Mott and with a few words of good wishes from Mr. Crowther the lamps were presented to the brides-elect.

The girls expressed their surprise and delight for the very lovely lamps and their happiness in serving with the staff generally.

Swimming Pool Opens on Thursday

The Lions Swimming Pool will open on the 1st of July, with the Community Council supervising activities for the year. Season tickets are available from members of the committee, the Rev. D. A. Ford, R. J. Milligan and S. H. Crowther. Prices for season tickets are, for children, one dollar; high school students, two dollars; adults, three dollars; family tickets, five dollars. The pool will again be supervised this year, by a swimmer selected by the Red Cross Swimming Safety Committee, Miss Enid Baldwin, who is a qualified instructor. The Red Cross in swimming safety, will be on hand as an assistant, and will help considerably with the smaller children. The pool was filled with water on Monday evening by Mr. Jack Bennett, following filling of the cracks in the cement work by W. E. Thompson, and cleaning of the pool by J. Charney. Grass was cut last week by W. E. Thompson and Wm. Pison.

It was delayed to the point where it was felt necessary to proceed with filling instead.

At Sunday School Prize Winners

Members of the Sunday School of St. Michaels and All Angels Church were presented with prizes for attendance on Sunday evening at the church services by the Rev. D. A. Ford. Illuminated pictures were presented to the younger members, and books to older members. Those winning prizes were, William, Bob Henderson, Ken Henderson and Brian Peterson. Books were given to Frank Henderson, Archie Henderson, Betty Henderson and Allan Simpson. Announcement was made during the evening that at least three members of the group would be attending the church camp at Millerville, and names of others wishing to attend were asked for.

Drowning Tragedy Takes Three Lives

Three lives were taken on Tuesday evening as a result of a boating tragedy when a Strathmore group were enjoying a cruise on Cheatem Lake. Those who passed on are Mrs. Margaret Petzel, Mr. Raymond E. Snider, and Mrs. Marion Linton, of Regina.

Mr. and Mrs. Petzel, Mr. and Mrs. Snider and Mrs. Linton drove up to the lake Tuesday evening for a boat trip. Mrs. Linton had arrived Monday from Regina to visit for a short time, and was on her way home. Petzel was busy on shore building a fire, the other four members of the party were out on the lake, when their boat was capsized.

Mr. Snider managed to push his wife to the boat, to which she clung, but he was unable to help the others. Mr. Snider himself was a non-swimmer. Dragging operations Wednesday morning succeeded in recovering the body of Mrs. Linton. Mrs. Petzel was a sister of Mr. Snider. She and her husband had moved to Strathmore only a year ago from Regina, when Mr. Petzel was employed as shop foreman at Baldwin Motors.

Mr. Snider leaves his wife and two sons, Lynn and Desmond, aged 10 and 2 respectively. They and Mrs. Snider had moved here only this spring, when he bought out the brick-laying business formerly operated by George Palardy.

Funeral services for Mrs. Petzel and Mr. Snider will be conducted in Nipawin, Saskatchewan. Arrangements for Mrs. Linton have not as yet been announced.

RURAL GLEICHEN

Mr. and Mrs. B. Panot are visiting the latter's father, George Hunt and other relatives. They came by car from California.

Thursday evening a social evening was held at the home in country to Rev. W. E. Sieber, who is leaving for his new charge at Golden, B.C., shortly. On behalf of the Gleichen congregation, Mrs. M. Bollinger presented Rev. Sieber with a lovely pin-up lamp, voicing the wishes of all that his future be pleasant and very happy. Rev. Sieber in a few words thanked everyone kindly. A dainty lunch was served ending a pleasant social evening.

The community was greatly shocked to learn of the death of John Byron Michael, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Michael, one day last week. The funeral service was held in St. Andrew's church, Rev. A. Ford officiating, and interment followed in the Gleichen cemetery Friday afternoon.

Mrs. R. Desjardine gave a social tea last week to compliment Mrs. Karl Sammons who is leaving soon for her future home at Cochrane, Alberta.

Mr. A. Wilson and family left Friday to spend a holiday at Byromore.

The heavy rain Friday did not stop parents from attending the Legion dance Friday evening in Gleichen hall. The dance was quite a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thompson and children arrived from Vancouver last week to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson. They came by car.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Brown are the proud parents of a lovely baby born June 21 in a Calgary hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Desmet and family of Strathmore visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Warner recently.

Cluny Notes

By Mrs. G.W.B.
Mr. Haymond and Barbara motored to Calgary Sunday where they took a party to Tacoma Washington for a holiday.

Leonard Brown of Queenstown is the congenial bar tender in Mr. Haymond's absence.

The St. John the Baptist picnic at the river Sunday, was very successful, the weather man co-operated with a wonderful day, the attendance was large, there were sports and treats for the children and ball games. Every one enjoyed the day. Mrs. Harold Beattie and her children are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beattie.

About 80 ladies turned out to the community shower put on in the Club room Saturday for Helen Beattie.

After several contests the guests were invited to the dining room where the tables looked lovely with white cloths, pink streamers and spring flowers. When all had done justice to a delicious lunch, little Misses Myrtil and Dianne Goldsmith pushed in a prettily decorated baby buggy piled high with gifts. The ladies-to-be received very many beautiful and useful gifts. After thanking the ladies warmly Helen invited them to visit her in her new home in Queenstown.

Mr. Lee Haymond has returned from a short holiday to the U.S.A. A very enjoyable Community sale took place in Cluny on Saturday afternoon. The articles turned in were many and varied. Everything from fancy work to livestock. Ray Gordon made a very capable auctioneer, and the sponsors were well pleased with the effort. The proceeds, amounting to $800.00, go to the construction of the new Catholic Church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Meek and son Joe of Trochu, accompanied by a niece and nephew, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hagarty. Mrs. Meek is a Miss Smith, who is nursing in Vancouver is holidaying with her mother.

Part of the type for this story was lost in making up last week's paper, and the story was somewhat garbled. We are reprinting it in full this week, and are sorry for last week's error.

Another triumph goes to the Board of Trade in the form of a picnic to the river Sunday. Since being organized about five years ago, they have had many successes, full undertakings and are indeed a live organization.

This was the first picnic. It was well attended and everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves. There were races for kiddies and grown ups, followed by a game of soft ball.

Everyone sat down to supper together, talking and enjoying spread on the grass. The tables surely told of an abundance of food in Alberta.

While everyone was still gathered, there was a surprise in the air. Mr. Inman, president, Mr. Hagarty gave a very able outline of the Board of Trade activities since it was organized about five years ago. The leadership given in the construction of the hall by Mr. Fairbairn, Mr. Beattie and Mr. Schaefer and the work Mr. Beattie did in building the crowd formed for a tug war married men vs single. These two teams were so evenly matched only the breaking of the rope ended the contest.

DOMINION DAY

It may well be that Dominion Day, just half way through the year, would be a good time to sit down, as we are supposed to do on New Year's Day, and take a careful look at the situation.

Naturally, since the accent on this occasion is on country and patriotism, the situation we would look over would likely be the national and the international pictures. And looking at the international picture right now, we're inclined to think it would be a good idea for us to look at our own national scene.

Most of us do a good deal of kicking about the country. There's this wrong with it, and that wrong with it, and the way it all sounds, there's nothing much right with it.

All the same, most of us seem to be fairly well satisfied on the whole. At least, we haven't noticed any large numbers of people moving back to their homeland. And many of those who do seem to find their way back to Canada after a short time.

Maybe it would be a good idea if we did sit down and add things up. We're not inclined to take our country and all its offers for granted. Most of us never saw any other type of living. We don't really comprehend that it wasn't always like this. We don't appreciate now many thousands fought to establish this way of life, not merely to maintain it.

In short, we take our Canada and our citizenship too much for granted. It might be wisest to think about it, . . . in time.

THE COTTON MENACE

Every year at the same time the town is subjected to this cotton fuzz nuisance, which is just as dangerous as it is annoying. Coming from the cottonwood tree, the stuff drifts idly through the air, getting in people's eyes, mouths, noses, and getting in their hair.

It's dangerous stuff, too, as anyone knows who has ever put a match to it. Extremely inflammable, it burns with an intense heat, and while burning certainly clears it up quickly, it may also clear up any fences or buildings which happen to be nearby.

The cottonwoods can be pruned back to top them shedding for a few years, and while the Town Council put on a big program last year, it seems to have missed many of the trees. We can hope that before next spring there will have been an opportunity to trim some of those now left. Better still would be a planned program of replacement, cutting out these nuisances, and growing some of the other slower, but more desirable types of trees.

WHERE PEOPLE SHOP:

We never can understand why people bother buying in the city what they can get right here in Strathmore and when anyone argues with us that such-and-such is cheaper in Calgary or so-and-so is more plentiful in Lethbridge, we mentally add the cost of train fare or gasoline or the wear and tear on a hitcher's thumb to the cost of the articles so purchased and the mental wear and tear and hazards of parking a car, to the whole project.

There's no particular virtue in buying in Strathmore but there is a great deal of practical good sense. It never disturbs us when we see an article priced ten cents cheaper somewhere else because a little mental arithmetic soon gives us the final cost and we see plenty which are priced ten cents higher. And when we go to Calgary we don't want to waste time looking for things we can get right here in Strathmore, because there are people to see on business, contacts to make, friends to hunt up, art shows to have a look at and club meetings to go to.

Like the personal touch that buying in Strathmore gets—the clerks who know what is wanted, the right size, the right price range and the right repairs for the electric iron.

We appreciate the service that Strathmore merchants and dealers give—the way they remember what is wanted of scarce materials, the way they track down someone to whom it is necessary to deliver messages, the way they remind us of things. One Strathmore merchant told us one day that he averages twenty messages a day, which must be a nuisance but we notice that no one in Strathmore refuses to give messages and seldom are they forgotten.

Yes, it's the purely practical angle of it that makes us buy in Strathmore, and that's the best reason we can give for it.

Business men in Strathmore don't ask for any special consideration for themselves, they are out to meet the competition of anyone. But they do offer better exchange service, more consideration for the customer, service now if the goods are in stock, delivery if desired the day stock ordered comes in and at all times the personal touch.

We like to buy where we know people, where our custom is appreciated, where we aren't just another clang on the cash register, where we can pick up news and get a joke, where we can go back into the warehouse to see the extra stock, where orders are remembered and the state of our purse is considered, where people don't high pressure us into buying things which are unsatisfactory because they are thinking of future patronage not just the present immediate sale. In fact we like buying in Strathmore which is the best reason for buying there.

With apologies to the Nanton News.

CROP REGISTRATION

Farmers interested in registration of crops should visit immediately to Mr. C. A. Weir, Plant Production Cereal Division Immigration Building, Calgary. Enclose with your correspondence a registration tag from a box of the seed you have sown, stating the acreage and kind of crop you wish inspected.

TREES

Many towns and some of the farmers have been pruning back their deciduous trees. Some of these trees have been pruned last year. The new growth reaches, in some cases, four and one-half to five feet in length. This is what we call bark-wood or growth, and is not very strong. Heavy rain or wet snow will split off many of these new branches, leaving your wind break or trees along the streets in a horrible looking mess.

To overcome this difficulty, farmers should have pruned back last year's growth at least one-half its length, and shaped the trees by cutting in direction or shape they wish it to grow. This work can even be done at the present time, if you get a rainy day, or can afford a man to do it for you, see that some of this pruning is done.

During this summer, you should plan to plant an additional quantity of trees, and when making wind breaks, have your wind breaks large enough to take in five acres of irrigated land or ten acres of dry land. If you plan your wind break now, planting next spring can be done readily.

Order your trees in sufficient time so that you will not be disappointed in having all the trees distributed before your order is received. Mr. D. Hargrave from the Horticultural Station at Brooks gave a very interesting talk to the Service Board members at the Edmonton conference. In this talk, he said that the best way to prevent snow trees can be used to prevent snow from drifting on the roads. In the province of Manitoba, this idea was followed through very carefully. They find that trees planted back from the road 125 feet in the north and south roads, and 150 feet on the east and west roads, eliminated snow piling. Where deep cuts are on the road allowances, these trees should be planted back from the cut at least 200 feet and planted in somewhat similar position as the snow fences.

After these trees are well established, they require very little maintenance and the Department of Public Works will not have to erect snow fences. This has been found so successful in Manitoba that the government assists the farmers in planting the trees.

Why can't we do this work in Alberta? The research people of Manitoba have found increased yields in that province when trees have been planted as outlined above.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sirs:

In the recent Twenty-fourth of May, Empire Day, a nationally celebrated holiday, flags were conspicuous by an almost total absence. Now, sir, while it is not our opinion that flags floating on the breeze are a measuring rod of one's loyalty nor is boisterous declaration of one's devotion to his flag and country desirable, yet Canadians as a whole are genuinely proud of the Union Jack and of Canada, and to give a little tangible evidence of this we suggest that the citizens of Strathmore put up their flags on this Dominion Day, July 1st, our chief national holiday.

Canadians have so much for which to be grateful, their freedoms, a glorious heritage and a peace-loving industries and intelligent people, that a liberal decorating of flags on this National Day 1948 is desirable.

So Mr. Citizen put up your flag and make the streets of Strathmore gay with the colors of the Nations Flag and honor the flag and the men who have upheld its traditions through these many years.

A Canadian

CHICKEN

When wet weather occurs, turkeys should be confined to the pen and not allowed to travel too far in the wet grass. Wet weather also brings up the problem of the lack of sunshine, and growing chickens require a large quantity of Cod Liver Oil. I learned of a handy way of feeding Cod Liver Oil. Take a full pint of wheat or hulled oats, warm them on the stove. Heat the crude Cod Liver Oil, pour it on the grain and stir thoroughly. This can be fed to chickens or young chicks at night. It may interest you to know that sufficient Cod Liver Oil can be fed to the hen so that the eggs fed to babies contain sufficient Vitamin D to make the giving of Cod Liver Oil to the babies unnecessary.

Have you checked your road allowances and edge of your fields for grasshoppers? The cold spring conditions with the heavy soil has delayed the hatching of grasshopper eggs and we are now faced with large numbers of the pests being attracted by the heavy infestations have occurred in the Rosbush area. Farmers are cautioned therefore, to check their fields and head off the infestation before it has progressed too far.

Langdon Notes

by G. E. W.

A well attended W.I. meeting was held in the hall on Wednesday afternoon. Two letters were read from institutes in England acknowledging food parcels. (one having 70 members.) A very comprehensive and interesting report was given by our delegate on the Conference held in Strathmore.

Provincial layettes are to be brought in for the next meeting, also huffs for overseas.

A member of the Girls Club will be the guests of the W.I. when expenses will be paid to Olds, from July 20-21-22. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. E. Moe, and Mrs. H. Mikkelsen, who served a tasty lunch and to conclude a busy afternoon old songs were sung as the program part.

Twelve members of the "Prairie Pals," Girls Club, accompanied by their convenor, Mrs. H. Blue, and Mrs. Hancock, were the guests of Mrs. E. Snider at her home in Calgary last Thursday for supper.

The many choice dishes soon disappeared when the appetites of the hungry girls were satisfied. During the evening a "public speaking" contest was held. First prize—"A Trip to Olds," was won by Helen Thomas of Indus. Second prize—a bottle of bath powder, won by Irene Hancock.

Before the girls departed for home Mrs. Blue, on behalf of the girls, presented Mrs. Snider with a cup and saucer in appreciation of her kindness.

On Sunday morning the I.O.O.F. and Rebecas assembled for a memorial service for their late brother, Lachlan McKinnon, in the I.O.O.F. hall. Rev. S. R. Hunt conducted the service taking for his subject "Friendship, Love and Truth," the three links of Gold-fellowship. During the service a solo was sung by Mr. Hunt "Jesus Lover of my soul," Mrs. Hunt at the organ.

Seldom in our notes do we have to report the passing of loved ones from our midst, but this week seems an exception, for within the last two weeks, Mr. Whitney's brother-in-law, Mr. Lachlan McKinnon of Calgary, Mrs. Whitney's sister, Mrs. H. Thurber of Blackie, Mrs. Taylor's sister, Miss M. Graham of Calgary have all passed away. The community extends its sincere sympathy to these families in their recent loss.

Rev. H. Reynolds has been appointed pastor of the Baptist Church in Langdon. Notice of services will be found in the church column.

By the time these notes are in the paper school will be out for the summer holidays, what a wonderful time for the children, but Oh, poor Mother!

Several Langdonites were in Calgary Friday evening to attend the Faulkner-Colwell wedding, held in Central United Church.

Berryvale W.I.

The Berryvale W.I. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Bazant on June 24, when arrangements for the tea to be held in Serviceberry School on July 15 were completed. The Lyalta W.I. will be our guests for the afternoon.

The delegate's report on the recent convention was not read owing to such a poor attendance. Will the members who have not already turned in a bingo prize please take one to the schoolhouse on July 15.

Bob Milligan was deep in his easy chair, relaxing after a hard day running around farms. Cameron, aged eight, was bedevilling him with an endless succession of unanswerable questions.

"Daddy, whatta ya do down at the office?" he finally asked.

"Nothing," shouted his daddy. Cameron pondered his extraordinary statement for a moment, then: "How d'ya know when you're through?"

After the flood was over Noah went back to see if all the animals were out of the ark. He found a pair of snakes in a corner weeping copiously. When he asked them what the trouble was, they said: "You told us to go out and multiply upon the earth, and we cannot, for we are adders."

Len Roberts says that an Arab mother of twin boys born in the neighbourhood of the Damascus Gate, which bristles with guns, said the boys have been named "Bren and Tommy."

A new Salary Schedule has been signed with the Teaching Staff with an increase in basic salary of $150.00 per annum, all other classes remaining the same as last year. It is planned to move the old Ardlebark School, which has been closed for a number of years, into the Village of Acme and the old Selkirk School into the Village of Delasker for additional classrooms which are required in these centres.

Five new one ton Chevys have been ordered for conversion into school buses of about twenty passenger capacity and it is expected that these will be in operation by Tony again put in an appearance. This time, somewhat subdued, he gurgled, "Look, mother, no teeth!"

"How's business?" a passer-by asked the old scissors grinder. "Fine," he said, "I never saw things so dull."

Young and inexperienced father gazing at trip/tete nurse had just brought out: "Well take the one in the middle."

Rockyford Notes

The citizens of Rockyford and district met in the Community Hall on Thursday, June 24, to bid Rev. and Mrs. Cowan farewell.

Mr. J. McBeth acted as chairman introducing the speakers with his witty Scotch humor. The musical programme proved very entertaining for the first part of the evening. After supper Mr. McBeth called September 1. This, with the five new ones that were put into operation last year, will make it possible to dispose of quite a number of the older buses. Some of these will be sold to private operators where possible.

All pianos in the Division are to be tuned and repaired and all typewriters cleaned and repaired during the summer holiday.

The Irricana School District No. 2163 has signed an agreement for inclusion into the Wheatland Division and if no objection is made the transfer will likely take place in the fall. This will complete the process of inclusion, all other towns and villages in the area having entered the Division previously.

Mrs. T. E. Wright was hostess Tuesday evening at a delightful bridge, when she arranged two tables in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Fraser, who is leaving Friday for Calgary.

A housewarming took the form of a surprise party on Tuesday evening when about twenty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gayl Robison swarmed into their new home at the W.I.D. headquarters, and threw a joint housewarming party and birthday party for Miss Frances Jones. Miss Jean Garrett and Miss Frances Gray were hostesses for the occasion. Many jolly games were played, much interesting chatting took place, and were followed by a grand array of refreshments. Following the refreshments, Jean and Frances, on behalf of the group, presented Gayl and Iola with a pair of kitchen stools. Frances Jones then received a lovely pair of gloves from the group.
